Lyn,
I received this response about the Dementia Friends Champions Training. It sounds like they will come to Watertown to offer a free training of the trainers! Let me know what you would like to do as far as next steps.

This email was received from outside of Carver County

Hello Dawn,

Thank you for your inquiry about Dementia Friends Champions Training! Yes, it is possible to have a training in Watertown. The trainings are offered free of charge and there is no minimum attendance required.

Trainings are given by volunteer Master Trainers. Training locations are set by the host/site and the volunteer Master Trainer.

Please let me know if you have more questions and if I can be of further assistance to you in the arrangement of a Dementia Friends Champion training. I am glad to help!

Hi,
I am working with a Senior Commission in the City of Watertown that is interested in learning more about an the Dementia Friends Champions Training.
Can you offer a training in Watertown? Is there a cost associated with the training? Do you have a minimum for attendance?

Thank you!
